

Accidental Death Indemnity Benefit Claim Form

Submitted to Wellabe, Inc. (the “Company”)*

The furnishing of this form and investigation of the claim is not to be construed as an admission of the validity of any claim or as a waiver of any condition of the policy by the Company.

Instructions for Filing a Claim

To avoid unnecessary processing delays, make sure you have:

- A completed, signed, and notarized claim form.
- A certified copy of the insured’s Certificate of Death that includes the cause and manner of death.
- A completed W-9 Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification form for each beneficiary.
- If any primary beneficiary has died before the insured, enclose proof of the beneficiary’s death: a copy of the beneficiary’s death certificate or obituary or a copy of the insured’s obituary if it mentions the beneficiary predeceased the insured. In such case, the claim should be made by the other beneficiary(ies), or if there are none, by the duly appointed Personal Representative (Executor or Administrator) of the insured’s estate.
- If the claim is made on behalf of the Insured’s estate, enclose a certified copy of the Letters of Administration or the Letters Testamentary, whichever is applicable, and a completed W-9 for the estate. If the insured’s estate will not be probated and the insured’s state of residence permits payment by affidavit for small estates, an affidavit form can be requested from the county clerk’s office in the insured’s county of residence. The form will need to meet the requirements for a small estate affidavit in the insured’s state of residence. Complete the affidavit and return with the other required documents.
- If a beneficiary is a minor or is legally incompetent, enclose certified copies of legal documents authorizing you to collect funds on behalf of the beneficiary.
- If there is a claim for accidental death benefits, furnishing a newspaper account, police report, or coroner’s verdict can facilitate the claim.

We suggest you keep a copy of all the information you send for your records.

Part 1: Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I on www.irs.gov. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see the How to get a TIN in the instructions for Part I on www.irs.gov.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 on www.irs.gov. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part 2: Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.
